LA QUINTA, California (February 12, 2016) - Palm Springs' first and only lakefront hotel, The Chateau at Lake La Quinta, is welcoming a new breed of guests to enjoy its serene waterfront setting. The boutique retreat announced today a new L'Petit Pup program, welcoming four-legged guests under 25 pounds for overnight stays.

More than ever, Palm Springs vacationers are bringing pets along for visits and vacations. The Chateau at Lake La Quinta caters to this growing clientele, offering special treats and amenities for guests' best friends.

Guests' dogs can relax in the lap of luxury with L'Petit Pup program at The Chateau at Lake La Quinta. At check-in, pets will find the room furnished with their own plush Martha Stewart™ pet bed, plus fresh food and water doggie bowl, Nyla bone and all natural, grain free organic treats from Ry's Ruffery (as seen on ABC's "Shark Tank").

Outside their suite, pups can roam freely on the Chateau's grassy lakefront patio. Dogs can also chow down with a special pet menu created by Executive Chef Nestor Ruiz of the Chateau's acclaimed Mélange restaurant.

L'Petit Pup program at The Chateau at Lake La Quinta is open to dogs less than 25 pounds, with a one-time $100 pet fee per stay.

THE CHATEAU AT LAKE LA QUINTA – La Quinta, California (www.thechateaulakelaquinta.com)

Nestled in the Coachella Valley near Palm Springs, the waterfront Chateau at Lake La Quinta brings Old World charm to the California Desert. With architecture reminiscent of a French manor, the chic oasis opened in October 2015 with 24 private suites, villas and bungalows with panoramic views of Lake La Quinta framed by swaying palms and the San Jacinto Mountains. The pet-friendly lakefront retreat offers personalized service and thoughtful amenities, including a 24-hour pool and a farm-to-table restaurant, Mélange, the only lakefront dining destination in the Palm Springs area. The Mélange Restaurant and Bar offers craft cocktails, fine wines, and a gourmet field-to-fork seasonal menu sourced from the finest California family farms. Nearby, guests can explore five PGA golf courses, plus boating, hiking, horseback riding, hot air balloon tours, fishing and mountain biking. The Living Desert, Palm Springs and Joshua Tree National Park are also within reach.
